SUPERFOODS

Driven by a passion for high-quality, essential foods with a premium and innovative edge, Gramless Superfoods has established a reputation for delivering products that excel in quality, health benefits, and a deep commitment to consumer well-being..

With Gramless, consumers can trust they're receiving the very best in natural foods, designed to support a healthier lifestyle and meet the highest benchmarks for quality and integrity.

A Legacy of Excellence in Premium Nutrition

Gramless may be a new name in the industry, but its heritage runs deep—built on over two centuries of agricultural expertise. Through generations of mastering cultivation, production, processing, and packaging, the brand has perfected the delivery of premium products renowned for their superior quality and exceptional nutritional value.

Driven by a passion for creating unparalleled, 100% natural products, Gramless set out to redefine premium nutrition. Under the visionary leadership of the Founders, the company spent years collaborating closely with India's local farmers and mills. This relentless dedication led to the creation of Gramless LOW GI 43 Basmati Rice—a groundbreaking product offering unmatched quality, flavor, and health benefits, achieving the world's lowest glycemic index for basmati rice.

Today, Gramless stands as a global brand with integrated farming, manufacturing, and packaging operations based in India. The brand is owned and managed worldwide by the G-TWELV Group, a dynamic food trade and distribution organization headquartered in the UAE under G-TWELV LLC - with operational facilities and offices in Lebanon through G-TWELV SAL, and strategic affiliations and partnerships across Canada, Australia, and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Each regional hub upholds G-TWELV's commitment to operational excellence and global standards, ensuring that Gramless Superfoods consistently delivers on its promise of premium quality, nutritional integrity, and consumer trust across all markets.

A Lifetime Partnership

Through a strategic initiative, G-TWELV Group, in partnership with its subsidiary AFT S.A.R.L.—a company specializing in food trade logistics, inspection, procurement, and acquisition—successfully acquired the global trademark and ownership rights for the Gramless and Gramless Superfoods brands.

This alliance positions Gramless Superfoods for global expansion, delivering premium, natural, and health-focused food products to international markets. Backed by G-TWELV's industry expertise and robust financial resources, the brand is set to establish itself as a leading force in the competitive global food sector.

Incorporated in 2020, G-TWELV, together with its subsidiary AFT, has established itself as a global trading powerhouse specializing in essential food products. The Group's distinctive approach lies in its model of creating fully independent operational ecosystems for each brand and product line—complete with dedicated teams, specialized facilities, and allocated capital resources. This structure ensures that every brand receives focused attention and strategic support tailored to its specific market and operational needs.
